Neutrals Still Seek Answer To Berlin Crux

West Powers In Prolonged, Secret Meet

Paris, Oct. 14.—(AP)—The Security council's neutral nations tonight pushed last-minute efforts to uncover a solution to the Berlin crisis acceptable to the East and West.

Council President Juan A. Bramuglia told newsmen he still thinks there is a chance the six neutrals he speaks for will find a solution of their own "just and acceptable" to Russia and the western powers.

Western delegates met for hours in secret session on the eve of renewed council debate on Berlin. Authoritative sources said they still were waiting for the neutrals to come through with a plan. The Russians also were reported to be showing keen interest in off-the-floor maneuvering.

The council meets tomorrow at 3 p. m. (8 a. m. CST).
Bramuglia, Argentine foreign minister, admitted the Berlin question was right back where it started in the council with both sides maintaining "their known positions." But he insisted that with all the cards on the table, the neutrals—Argentina, Belgium, Canada, China, Syria and Colombia—now may come up with an answer.

Informed sources said the neutrals were expected to ask a series of questions at the council meeting in efforts to clear up some points in the western case. The answers they get may cement a resolution.

No Blockade, Says Russ
The United States, Britain and France have charged Russia with threatening world peace by the Berlin blockade and want the council to end it. Russia insists there is no blockade and the whole German problem should go before the four-power council of foreign ministers.

Andre Y. Vishinsky, fiery Soviet deputy foreign minister, is boycotting council discussions but he attends the meetings and is expected to veto any resolution which goes against the Soviet point of view.

While the corridor talks were under way, these developments took place on the floor.

Michigan State Clamps Down On Student Gambling

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Michigan State college campus police clamped down today on what they termed student gambling on professionally operated football pools.

Detective Charles Becker said campus police detained three students whom they believed to be "contact men" for a gambling syndicate and seized a quantity of tickets for a week-end pool on collegiate football games, plus a list of student customers.

Detective Becker declared warrants charging illegal possession of gambling apparatus would be asked against the trio of students, Michael Asadourian, 23, and Charles Vartanian, 23, both of Highland Park, Mich., and 24-year-old Elmer Erickson, Lake Odessa, Mich.

Becker said Asadourian declared in statements to police that he had met representatives of the gambling syndicate to obtain tickets. The police officer quoted the other two students as admitting they had sold tickets.

Warren Urges GOP Leadership In Washington State

Enroute With Warren To Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Vice presidential nominee Earl Warren threw the weight of the national GOP ticket today behind the party drive to return the Washington state government to Republicans.

Washington's major contest this year centers on the close governorship battle between Gov. Mon C. Wallgren, good friend of President Truman, and Arthur E. Langlie, the Republican governor whom Wallgren beat four years ago.

On the cross-state trip today—at Wenatchee, Skykomish and Everett—the Republican vice presidential candidate from California coupled his campaign appeal for election of a Republican congress with praise for Langlie.

ACTOR INJURED
Los Angeles, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Film actor Louis Hayward, 39, suffered facial and chest bruises today when his car struck a telephone pole. He was taken to Santa Monica hospital for treatment and later released. Police said Hayward was alone when the accident occurred.

Dewey Says Democrats Are Tired, Confused

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, campaigning in President Truman's home state, said tonight the Democratic administration is "tired, confused" and "coming apart at the seams."

The Republican candidate for president spoke and jabbed repeatedly at his Missouri opponent in a major address prepared for delivery in Municipal auditorium and for national broadcast (CBS) at 8:30 p. m. CST.

Dewey picked "good government" as his theme—something he said is lacking under Mr. Truman.

"We know the kind of government we have now," the New York governor said.

"It is tired. It is confused. It scolds and complains. It runs off in a dozen different directions at once. It tries to frighten people. It divides them. It is coming apart at the seams."

Making his second trip into President Truman's home state in two weeks in another bid for Missouri's 15 electoral votes, Dewey took an indirect crack at the Kansas City Pendergast organization. It was that organization which backed Mr. Truman for the U. S. senate and put him on a springboard to the presidency.

In an obvious allusion to the Democratic organization of the late Tom Pendergast, Dewey said: "It seems particularly appropriate to talk about good government here in Kansas City. You have known how bad a government can be."

"You rose up and threw it out and you know how good a good government can be."

Dewey built his speech around five essentials of good government. He promised to incorporate all of them in his administration if he wins the November election.

The essentials: People who wholeheartedly believe in the American system of freedom, teamwork, integrity, competence, simple courage.

Elaborating on competence, Dewey left no doubt he feels the Truman administration doesn't have it.

Douglas Charges Brooks Indirectly Blasts Own Party

Chicago, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Paul H. Douglas, Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator from Illinois, tonight charged his republican opponent, Sen. C. Wayland Brooks, is "trying to cripple" the administration of the Marshall plan.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a 22nd ward democratic rally, Douglas said:

"Brooks says the administration of the Marshall plan must be 'cleaned out.' In this bushwhack attack, Brooks fails to realize that his target consists of many eminent republicans."

"The over-all administration of the Marshall plan, for instance, is in the hands of Paul G. Hoffman, one of the ablest industrialists in the country and an ardent republican. His aides on the executive level are also republicans."

Hoffman, said Douglas, is being "maliciously sniped at by Senator Brooks who, after doing his worst to kill the Marshall plan, is now trying to cripple its administration."

Ex-Springfield Brewery Official Cited For Forgery

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—A former Springfield brewing company officer was indicted on forgery and embezzlement charges today and named in a suit alleging he appropriated $300,000 in company funds for his own use.

Harry D. Anderson, 52, employed by the brewery from 1941 to 1947, was charged in Sangamon county grand jury indictments with embezzling $27,000 and forging checks totaling $2,955.

Italy's Commie Labor Boss Threatens Strike

Rome, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Italy's communist labor chief, Giuseppe Di Vittorio, today threatened the nation with a 7,000,000-man general strike unless the government satisfies demands of striking state workers.

More than 1,000,000 government employees, considered a center or right-of-center white collar class, were called out today for one to nine hours to support their demands for higher wages and other benefits.

In Rome, however, where a large part of the government employees work, all but the ministry of posts and telegraphs reported a majority of their people stayed on the job.

The ministry of interior said that in the provinces, too, most government offices were well staffed.

It was the first time this white collar group had tried a big-scale strike.

Di Vittorio made his threat at a mass meeting of about 10,000 state employees in Rome.

"If the government does not accept the state employees' request all 7,000,000 general confederation workers will strike to support their demands," he said.

The general confederation of labor embraces almost every type of public and private worker. A strike of all its members could paralyze the nation.

Today's walkout went off without violence. The government put heavy police reinforcements on the street.

Britain, China Ask Account Of Bernadotte Query

Paris, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Britain and China today proposed that the Security Council demand from Israel a full accounting of what is being done to track down the assassins of Count Folke Bernadotte.

The two powers also called on both Arabs and Jews for a tighter touch in Palestine through strict compliance with United Nations orders.

The joint draft resolution expressed concern that Israel had not reported on its investigation into the slaying of Bernadotte, the U. N. mediator, and an aide, French Col. Andre Serot, in the Jewish section of Jerusalem Sept. 17. Israel says they were killed by a splinter group of the Stern gang, Jewish terrorist organization.

No vote was taken on the proposal but another meeting on Palestine is expected soon.

Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative, told the council his government has arrested "over 200 members of the organization believed responsible" and "the days of organized terrorism are over."

Eban said the leader of the "suspected organization" is in jail. An Israeli spokesman said he referred to Nathan Friedman-Yellin, leader of the Stern gang. Dispatches from Tel Aviv said Friedman-Yellin had been charged formally with leading the Stern gang and harboring arms illegally but the reports made no mention of Bernadotte's assassination.

Catholic Priest Found Murdered In California Hotel

Weed, Calif., Oct. 14.—(AP)—A man found beaten to death in a blood-spattered hotel room has been identified as the Rev. Francis J. Parolin, a Catholic priest, Coroner Lloyd Noble said tonight.

Sheriff Ben Richardson said an all-points bulletin has been issued to pick up a man about 32 years old seen with the priest Wednesday night in a local tavern.

Wallace Claims Truman Prisoner Of Big Business

Milwaukee, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Henry Wallace said tonight President Truman is a "prisoner of big business and militarists who 'clamped down' and stopped his plan to send Chief Justice Fred Vinson to Moscow."

Mr. Truman was about three miles away speaking at the Milwaukee ball park as Wallace heaped derisive words on him in two speeches.

In a speech over the ABC network, the third-party candidate for president took credit for causing Mr. Truman's plan to send Vinson to talk with Russians.

Wallace said he demanded the resumption of negotiations two weeks ago, the people took up the demand, and the president "was forced" to make the Vinson assignment.

"But again," Wallace said, "just as on every previous occasion, the real masters of our policy clamped down and stopped Mr. Truman's move."

"Timid and incapable, he could do nothing but obey the men who hold him prisoner. The big brass and the big gold hold Mr. Truman prisoner. They have a puppet in Mr. Dewey."

Report Prospects For Phone Strike Settlement Good

Washington, Oct. 14.—(AP)—A union official said tonight that prospects for settlement of a wage dispute involving 225,000 telephone workers were improving.

"Offers are flying back and forth across the country," the union spokesman said, "and things look brighter than they did a few hours ago."

This was at 7 p. m., central standard time.

Under union contracts with Bell System companies, the deadline for negotiations to end was midnight. There was no indication of a strike, however.

The spokesman said negotiations were going on at 19 different points across the nation. The workers involved in the dispute are spread out over more than 30 states.

The two unions involved are the Communications Workers of America (CWA) and the American Union of Telephone Workers (AUIW). The latter has approximately 25,000 long-distance workers.

Britain Denies Marshall Influence In French Stand

Paris, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Arthur Horner, Communist general secretary of the British Mine Workers Union, said today U. S. Secretary of State George Marshall had asked Will Lawther, president of the British miners, to take a stand against the French coal strike.

"I disagree with Lawther," Horner said in an interview. "I don't take any orders from General Marshall."

In London, Lawther said "it is just plain daft for him (Horner) to suggest that because I was at a lunch where Mr. Marshall spoke that governs my views."

He added he did not take orders "as to my thoughts or actions from any outside source."

Marshall could not be reached immediately for comment.

Truman Favors Public Control Of A-Bomb

Milwaukee, Oct. 14.—(AP)—President Truman said tonight he favors "public control" of atomic development for the benefit of all the people.

Mr. Truman got into his atomic speech after his day of campaigning through Southern Minnesota and Wisconsin farming country—and hitting Dewey on other issues.

Furthermore, he finished plans for a nine-speech big city windup of a campaign he says is one of the most momentous in the country's history.

He will broadcast over all networks from his Independence, Mo., home on election eve, Nov. 1. His aides said it will be a "get out and vote" appeal and that Senator Alben W. Barkley, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, will join him from Paducah, Ky.

Democrats Win In Alaska; Predict Victory In U.S.

Juneau, Alaska, Oct. 14.—(AP)—A Democratic victory in the Alaska election led Gov. Ernest Gruening today to predict the territory vote is a barometer for party success in the national election.

The Democrats swept the four territorial offices and were leading in five of eight races for the territorial Senate and 17 of 24 for the lower house of the legislature. The Republicans won a majority of the legislative contests in the 1946 election.

In 79 reported precincts out of 226 in the sprawling territory congressional delegate E. L. Bartlett, Democrat, had 13,657 to 3,821 for R. H. Stock, Republican. Bartlett's support is generally recognized as crossing party lines extensively.

Church Chancellor Defends Position In Fraud Probe

Chicago, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Harrison Parker appeared today before a federal grand jury investigating charges that he defrauded $230,000 from entrants in a puzzle contest promoting his "Puritan Church of America."

In July, Parker, self-styled chancellor of the church, was refused an injunction restraining the postmaster of suburban LaGrange from stamping mail addressed to Parker "fraudulent" and returning it to senders.

The post office held up about 100,000 pieces of mail addressed to him. In refusing the injunction Judge Michael L. Igce ruled the fraud order of the post office was based on "substantial evidence."

Parker also forfeited $1,000 bond to the circuit court of Cook county in July when he failed to appear in connection with a 90-day sentence for contempt imposed in 1945. The U. S. supreme court upheld the sentence April 6, 1948.

The sentence resulted from Parker's filing an affidavit in which he branded all Illinois courts as "crooked."

Pamela Lamphere Gains In Fight For Normal Life

Chicago, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Two-year-old Pamela Lamphere, whose chances of surviving surgery led to a dispute that almost wrecked her parents' marriage, moved another step along the road toward normal childhood today.

The second of three operations to correct a rare bladder condition was performed at the County hospital and physicians pronounced it "a success." The operation lasted two hours.

The final operation—considered the least serious in the series—will not be attempted for three months. The golden-haired child was wheeled into the operating room after saying good-bye to her parents. Irene and Fred Lamphere. They waited in an ante room while the operation was performed.

After the operation, Pamela came out of the anesthetic almost immediately.

Judge Holds Printers' Union In Contempt

Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert held the International Typographical Union in contempt of court today and ordered the union not to ask contracts which discriminate against hiring non-union printers.

He ruled the union had evaded his injunction against violating the Taft-Hartley law and was trying illegally to maintain a closed shop.

The judge told the ITU and its top four officers to be in court within 10 days to show that they are following his instructions given out today.

Wildlife Service Predicts Better Duck Hunting

Washington, Oct. 14.—(AP)—The Fish and Wildlife Service predicted today that duck hunting along the Mississippi flyway might be a bit better this fall than last.

The agency based its estimate on a report of the first two days of hunting in Manitoba, Canada, where one of the first of the North American duck hunting seasons opened Oct. 1.

Service Biologists Arthur S. Hawkins and Merrill C. Hammond reported the total kill in Manitoba's Weyburn Marsh was considerably higher than last year.

The biologists also said a larger number of birds might be expected this year along the Mississippi flyway in the United States.

The eastern border of the flyway crosses Ontario, Ohio, Indiana and the Mississippi valley along the lower Mississippi river. On the west the flyway merges into the central flyway in eastern Nebraska, western Missouri and Arkansas.

Bevin Believes Russ Should Stay In Own Country

London, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today the Russians must "keep on their side of the garden wall" if they can't get along with the rest of the world.

In a speech before the National Union of Manufacturers, Bevin said the British "have ceased to be an imperialist race. We dominate nobody!" But Russia, he continued, "is the one country in the world that is still imperialistic—still as imperialistic as Ivan The Terrible, as Frederick The Great, or as Alexander."

Bevin said the "key to whether we shall have peace for 100 years is in the great problem of the Indian ocean—the Middle East, Pakistan, India and Ceylon."

Only two days ago Bevin was reported to have emphasized at the current empire conference attended by premiers and officials of the dominions, including Pakistan, India and Ceylon, the dangers of communist pressure in that area.

U. S. COULD USE A STOCKPILE OF SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE, TOO

Dr. Howard E. Fritz, a scientist specializing in rubber, doesn't know what makes rubber bounce. He would like to know. So, he says, would his colleagues. American industry has done wonderful things with rubber. But nobody really knows why a rubber ball doesn't stay on the floor when you drop it there, even though science has been studying the phenomenon for 200 years.

The reason Dr. Fritz mentioned the bouncing rubber is because he thinks American science should be spending more time than it is on problems of fundamental knowledge such as this. He points out correctly that Americans have done more with the world's store of basic scientific information than anyone else, but that we have contributed very little to that store.

In this connection the atomic bomb comes naturally to mind. And it may be recalled that if it had not been for two expatriates, an anti-Fascist Italian physicist and a German Jewish woman scientist, the Axis and not the Allies would probably have been first with the bomb.

There are several other examples of this kind, extending back more than a century. As Dr. Fritz put it, "We (Americans) are not scientists, we are applied researchers. How fortunate for ourselves and our engineering economy that in the past scientists have always exchanged views internationally."

"However, the scene is changing," he adds. "Some nations now suppress free exchange of scientific information. This plainly means that we must step up the quality and quantity of our fundamental research."

To help accomplish this purpose Dr. Fritz's employers, the B. F. Goodrich Co., have recently opened a $6,000,000 research center near Akron. With past experience in mind, it might be prudent if other companies and other industries followed that example.

In the early days of World War II American industry suddenly found that the rapid Japanese advance had cut this country off from its principal sources of rubber, tin and several other vital necessities of manufacture. With that lesson in mind the country is now beginning to stockpile certain strategic materials not found here against another possible emergency.

But it would seem equally necessary that the country should think about a stockpile of scientific knowledge, which is the raw material of America's vaunted genius for adaptation and production. Another war might cut us off from that raw material as surely as the last war cut us off from tin and natural rubber.

New research laboratories would not mean that this country was "war mongering." They might be essentials of national defense, to be sure. But they could also serve simultaneously as centers of knowledge to improve the health and comfort of all mankind when a stable peace is finally achieved.

Sydney—(AP)—An Australian farmer recently learned the meaning of the expression, "Never say die until you're kicked by a dead horse!"

A farmer at Bellingham, New South Wales, shot a horse, cut its throat and was skinning the last leg when it jerked loose and kicked him in the chin. He had to have six stitches taken.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Hirsuteness No Sign Of Man's Virility

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Some people used to believe the world was flat.

Some still do.

Some people used to believe that if you plucked a filament from a horse's tail and left it overnight in a jar of water it would turn into a garter snake.

Some still do.

Some people used to believe that hairy men are more virile than bald-headed men.

And too darn many people still believe this hoary fable.

The ancient superstition cropped up again in Chicago where 40 illustrators nominated the five "most virile men in America"—and didn't include one bald-headed man.

A Deliberate Snub

The snub was deliberate.

"We felt since the general impression of virility includes hirsuteness, we'd eliminate shiny pates," said Reno Biondi, director of the Artists' committee.

Who did they pick? They chose Gov. Earl Warren of California, Actors Clark Gable and Victor Mature, singer, Jack Smith and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland baseball manager.

No one could quarrel that these are virile men. But to leave baldies out of the list is to bow to outworn prejudice. It flouts the facts of history, the findings of science and the trend of the human race.

Because nature, which permits free competition and the survival of the fittest, is taking her cue from the billiard ball in the process of evolving a man. The man of the future is going to be bald. He's on the march now. Hair is going, going—and in the end to come it will be gone.

Loaded With Hormones

In discussing his committee's selections, Biondi said:

"These five are about as virile as you can get. They're positively loaded with Hormones, or appear to be."

This statement is enough to make a bald headed man's hair rise on the nape of his neck. What do artists know about hormones? Did they ever paint one? Science says just the opposite—that the bald-headed man, on the average, probably is stuffed with more hormones. That's one reason why he's losing his hair.

Men ahead of their time tend to be philosophical. The baldheaded man today bows to the jeers of his contemporaries—and bides his hour in patience.

But even in this transitional period of cranial adornment, he has his rights. Both in virility and social accomplishment, he is making his mark. Offhand—if they wanted to make a rebuttal to the Chicago artists—the cubicals could present a formidable list of their own of men whose hair has gone or is going the way of oak leaves in November.

Examples of Virile Men

Such as:

Dwight D. Eisenhower, the distinguished New York educator.

Jack Benny, who takes the air with little hair.

Omar Nelson Bradley, the Army's chief of staff.

Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Britain.

Henry Kaiser, who combs out more automobiles than he does curly locks.

Bing Crosby, who proved the larynx is more important than the scalp.

Leo Durocher, the strong silent man with the New York Giants.

Jim Farley, whose pate gleams as gently as his smile.

These are all virile men who have found that fame and fortune don't

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Hirsuteness No Sign Of Man's Virility

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Some people used to believe the world was flat.

Some still do.

Some people used to believe that if you plucked a filament from a horse's tail and left it overnight in a jar of water it would turn into a garter snake.

Some still do.

Some people used to believe that hairy men are more virile than bald-headed men.

And too darn many people still believe this hoary fable.

The ancient superstition cropped up again in Chicago where 40 illustrators nominated the five "most virile men in America"—and didn't include one bald-headed man.

A Deliberate Snub

The snub was deliberate.

"We felt since the general impression of virility includes hirsuteness, we'd eliminate shiny pates," said Reno Biondi, director of the Artists' committee.

Who did they pick? They chose Gov. Earl Warren of California, Actors Clark Gable and Victor Mature, singer, Jack Smith and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland baseball manager.

No one could quarrel that these are virile men. But to leave baldies out of the list is to bow to outworn prejudice. It flouts the facts of history, the findings of science and the trend of the human race.

Because nature, which permits free competition and the survival of the fittest, is taking her cue from the billiard ball in the process of evolving a man. The man of the future is going to be bald. He's on the march now. Hair is going, going—and in the end to come it will be gone.

Loaded With Hormones

In discussing his committee's selections, Biondi said:

"These five are about as virile as you can get. They're positively loaded with Hormones, or appear to be."

This statement is enough to make a bald headed man's hair rise on the nape of his neck. What do artists know about hormones? Did they ever paint one? Science says just the opposite—that the bald-headed man, on the average, probably is stuffed with more hormones. That's one reason why he's losing his hair.

RECALLS WORKING FOR JOURNAL HERE
FORTY YEARS AGO
LeRoy Coates of Houston, Texas, who worked for the Jacksonville Journal circulation department more than 40 years ago, was a visitor here Thursday.

Mr. Coates recalled many persons who were connected with the newspaper at that time. He was employed for 26 years by the Houston Chronicle in circulation work.

From this city Mr. Coates expects to go to Iowa for a visit with a brother who is 79 years old.

150 Attend School Library Meeting At Beardstown

The first of ten conferences to be sponsored in various sections of the state by the Illinois State Library, the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and several other library and educational groups, was held at Beardstown high school Tuesday.

Several hundred visitors from surrounding territory came here for the event, which began at 9:30 a. m. An afternoon session also was held.

W. L. Gard, Beardstown school superintendent, arranged the program.

The general theme was "The Place of the Library in the Enriched Curriculum."

There was one addition to the program as originally planned. Miss Marion E. James, head of the Extension Service of the Illinois State Library, was on hand and delivered an address.

Dr. Blodgett Speaks

Superintendent Gard presided at the morning session. The program included talks on "The Modern Curriculum," by D. R. Blodgett, Jacksonville superintendent of schools; "What a Classroom Teacher Expects From the Library," by Miss Edith Masters, Petersburg high school teacher; "What Can the Librarian do to Help both Teachers and Pupils in the Library," by Mrs. Adele Armstrong, Bushnell high school librarian; "How Can the City Library Supplement the School Program," by Miss Hallie Seeger, librarian of the Beardstown public library, and "What Should the Student Expect from the School Library," a discussion in which Tom Fischer, Lillian Larkin, Violet Phelps and Ruth Weber, Beardstown high school students, participated.

Afternoon Program

At the afternoon program, opening at 1:30 p. m. B. W. Smith, Cass county superintendent of schools, president, Dr. John Carlington of Illinois State Normal University spoke on "Adequate Schools for 1948," and Elizabeth Kuhlo, Quincy Junior high school librarian, discussed "Development of Specific Units of Work Through the Use of the Library."

Supt. Smith was chairman of a round table discussion dealing with elementary school problems, and P. W. McAllister, Beardstown high school principal, presided over a similar meeting dealing with secondary school problems.

About 150 persons from the 11 counties of Adams, Hancock, Schuyler, Brown, Pike, Scott, Cass, Sangamon, Menard, Morgan and McDonough attended.

HIT OF THE YEAR! Have you tried DYNAFLOW?

Do you want to know what the motorwise press has in mind when it talks about "the biggest advance since the self-starter?"

Do you want to know how it feels to command the smoothest flow of power to be found on land, on sea, or in air?

Then settle yourself behind the wheel of a Buick Roadmaster, and try out Dynaflo Drive.*

Here, you will find, is something vastly more than "no clutch" driving.

It's a brand-new way of transmitting the driving force from an engine to the rear wheels — without buck or bobble.

*You get Dynaflo Drive, at extra cost, on Roadmasters only.

You have a drive that gets completely away from gears which have to shift.

You have a drive that takes you from a standing start — through every speed range — with a steady, willing swoop of power.

You have in Dynaflo a built-in supercharging assembly that combines the smoothness of oil with an instant response to acceleration.

You have, in other words, eager starts, easy-striding climbs, an unfettered pace on the straightaway — controlled by the gentle nudge of your toe on the gas treadle.

Except for parking or backing, there's nothing to do but steer the car, in a whole day's drive.

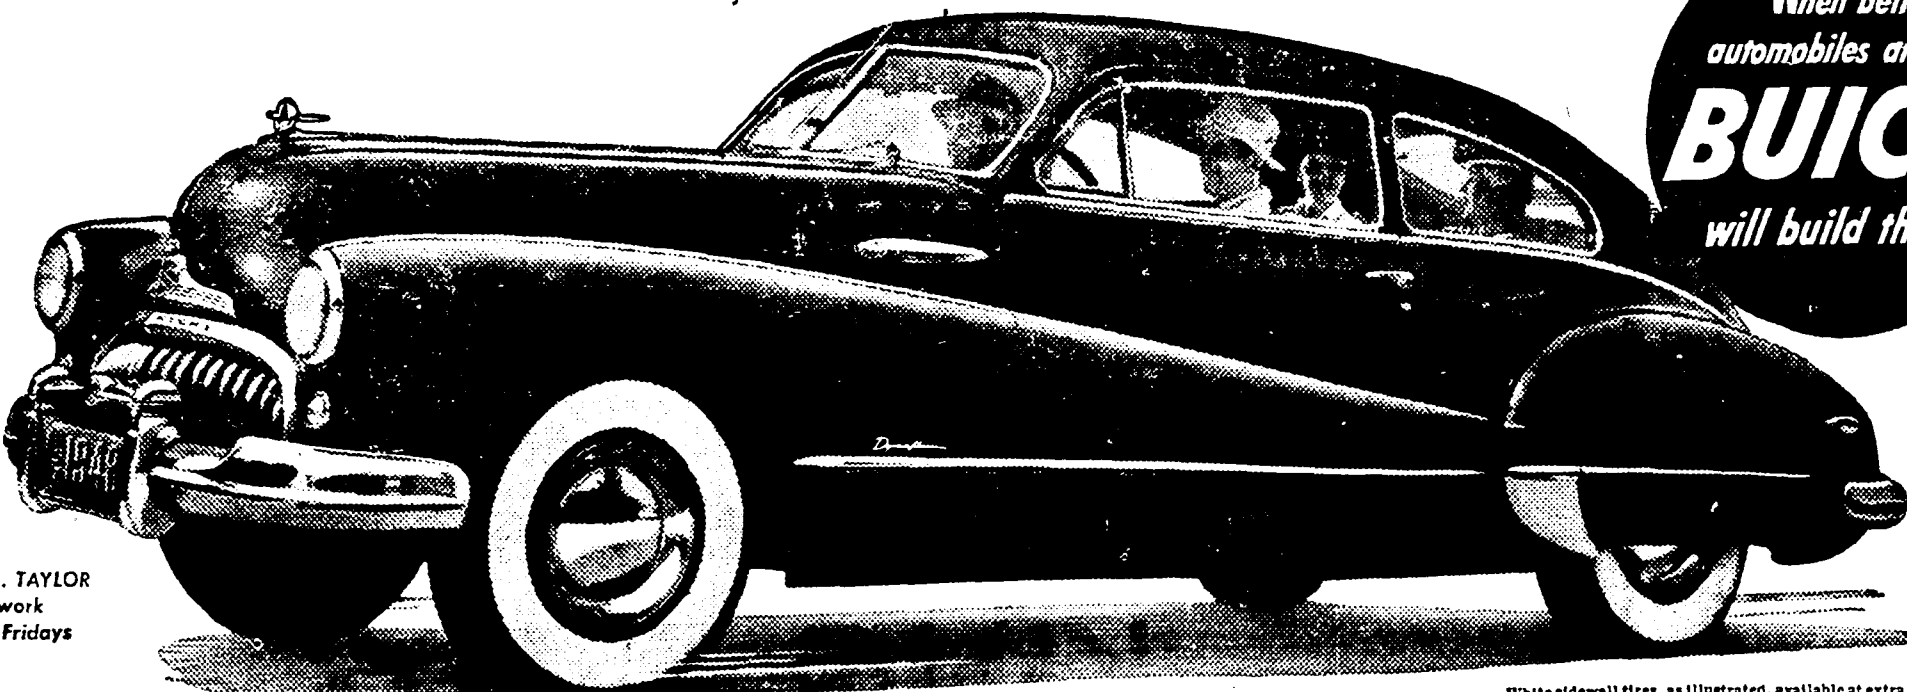

In ten wonderful minutes, you can check all these facts for yourself.

First step to this great adventure is to give us a call. Then we'll let nature take its course. But we might give you one hint: We'll be glad to book your order, whether or not you have a car to trade.

BUICK alone has all these features

- * DYNAFLOW DRIVE (Roadmaster Series)
- * TAPER-THRU STYLING (Super and Roadmaster)
- * VIBRA-SHIELDED RIDE * SAFETY-RIDE RIMS
- * HI-POISED FIREBALL POWER
- * ROAD-RITE BALANCE * RIGID TORQUE-TUBE

the meeting. Reports from 44 workers were turned in at that time. Less than half of the workers had been heard from. Only one-third of the pledges have been worked.
Mr. Bellatti pointed out that the success of the campaign depends upon seeing all of the prospects. He stressed the importance of pointing out the fact that this is a campaign for six agencies, and that each individual contribution should be considered in the light of what amount they were giving to each individual agency.
"The contributor should give six times as much as he would give to separate campaigns," he stated Wednesday.
Also speaking briefly at the meeting was Dr. Frank Marston, general campaign chairman. Dr. Marston thanked the workers present for the report for the work they had done. He stated that the service clubs of the community are doing an excellent job. The personnel of the Special Gifts Committee this year is made up of members from the Business & Professional Women's Club, Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and Exchange clubs.
The Optimist Club is handling the Out-Commercial Division of the campaign and the Junior Chamber of Commerce is handling the Commercial Division.

Remarkable strides have been made in electrical conveniences by American manufacturers. One of the reasons of the popularity of electrical appliances is that electricity is cheap. It may seem, but the more electricity that is used, the cheaper it becomes.

Coach Bob Kraushaar's up-and-coming Jacksonville high school Crimsons, their record record blemished only by a tie with Beardstown, tackle the faltering Feitshans high school Flyers at Springfield high school field tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The combat comes in the Central conference standings.

Although the Morgan county outfit again takes the gridiron in the role of underdog, many Jacksonville fans are freely predicting a victory over the capital city aggregation which has had more than its share of injuries this season.

Flyers Strong

Feitshans is a real toughie this year, as always. Coach Earl Wax led his club to victories over Taylorville and Springfield Cathedral and the organization lost only 6-0 to Springfield high, rated one of the best two elevens in the Big Twelve. Recent reversals to Lanphier of Springfield and Gillespie have been by one-sided margins, however.

Biggest worry for Jacksonville Coach Bob Kraushaar this week lies in the condition of his backfield. His two standouts, Stan Spotts and Andy Petko, are both ailing. Spotts has a badly bruised left hand which will be protected with a light cast, while Petko will probably wear a nose-guard after suffering a cracked nose.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Oct. 14.—(P)—Livestock prices settled down today with virtually the whole selection moving at steady to fractional changes. Some butcher hogs were 25 cents lower and some cattle offerings as much as 50 cents higher.

Most good and choice butcher hogs sold at $23.50 to $24.25 and a top of $26.35, sparingly paid. Sows took mostly $23.00 to $24.75.

Average-choice grade was the best in the steer run, taking $39.00, with others grading down to good selling down to $31.00. Choice heifers merited $37.50. Good beef cows brought up to $23.50, bulls up to $23.00, and weaners to $31.00.

Good and choice clipped lambs sold at $24.50 and choice native woolled lambs $25.50, ewes sold as high as $10.00.

Total receipts included 12,500 hogs, 3,300 cattle, 400 calves, and 5,500 sheep.

New York Stock Market

New York, Oct. 14.—(P)—Buying orders streamed into the stock market at the fastest rate of the month today.

Prices responded with gains of fractions to 2 points and more.

Turnover approached the 1,000,000-share mark for the full session, which would be something of a novelty after recent slow markets.

Oil shares peppered the ticker tape but demand spread into other groups as well. Rails turned out to be stubborn although selected issues turned in small gains.

Optimistic Wall Streeters claimed the advance was the long-awaited pre-election rally. Odds are running high in Wall Street in favor of a Republican victory in the presidential elections and the belief is widely held that a new administration would look more kindly on business aims and methods.

Foreign news was virtually ignored for a change.

Superior Oil of California, a high-priced issue, jumped around 10 points at one time. Smaller gains were posted for U. S. Steel, National Steel (at a new 1948 high), Jones & Laughlin, Standard Oil of California, Skelly Oil, Studebaker, Johnsonville, Radio Corp., Owens-Illinois, N. O. Gypsum, Nickel Plate and Illinois Central.

The bond market was quiet with price changes in small fractions.

White Hall Beats Carrollton Eleven In Fourth Period

Carrollton—After three periods of nearly equal battling, White Hall turned on the steam in the last frame to defeat the local grid squad by a 26-6 tally Thursday night.

After a first period characterized by mid-field jockeying, the Carrollton eleven scored the initial tally on a pass, Lynn to Riddings. Gale Staples, Carrollton fullback, was injured on the previous play. He was unable to stay in the game.

The victors set up their first tally when Tackle B. Roodhouse intercepted a Carrollton toss on the 30 yard line. Barnd went around end for the 30 yards.

In the fourth stanza White Hall lost the ball on the 4 yard line. Carrollton kicked to the center line; Quarterback Mines whipped out a 20 yard pass to Wyatt, who galloped the remaining distance.

Barnd scored again in a two-yard plunge over right tackle and kicked the goal. The White Hall fullback repeated a few minutes later after he had tossed an aerial to Patterson, who was grounded on the seven. Barnd reversed the field to tally.

White Hall completed 14 first downs, Carrollton got 6. The victors were penalized 115 yards and the officials set Carrollton back 20 yards. White Hall 26 0 0 0 0-6 Carrollton 6 0 0 0 0-6

Onslow Promises Rebuilt Chisox For 1949 Season

Chicago, Oct. 14.—(P)—Jack Onslow, new Chicago White Sox manager, said today that the last-place team will be rebuilt for next season and that "my club will have to hustle for me."

Onslow, who moved to the top spot in the Pale Hose organization after managerial stints at Waterloo, Ia., in the Three-I league, and Memphis of the Southern association, chatted 1949 plans at a Comiskey park news conference.

The successor to Ted Lyons declared:

"When a team loses 101 games as the White Sox did last season, there has to be a complete shake-up."

Both Onslow and Charles Comiskey, Sox secretary and heir apparent to the club presidency, agreed they would shop for fresh blood via major league deals, especially for pitchers.

Onslow talked mainly about seven players he handled last year on the Memphis team which finished second in the Southern association race and who will get Pale Hose chances next spring.

He said he had front office backing to buy any major league prospect who might help the club. Comiskey said that was right, but emphasized that most major league teams wanted players themselves, more than cash.

"We're not going out after any half-million dollar ball players, just because some hard-pressed team like the St. Louis Browns, for instance, asks that price," said the 22-year-old Comiskey.

Joliet; West Aurora Clash Tops Prep Card This Week

By CHARLES WHALEN

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—(P)—Joliet and West Aurora, two of downstate's toughest looking prep football outfits, collide tomorrow in a top drawer attraction that may go a long way toward deciding the big eight flag race.

The pair is deadlocked for league leadership and neither eleven has been defeated in five starts against all competition. Joliet, however, has a 13-1 tie with Bloom marring an otherwise impressive record.

Have Perfect State

West Aurora is one of 27 schools—of nearly 300 outside Chicago that play football—on the list of unbeaten and untied.

At least four members of this select group will bid goodbye to perfect states during the weekend grid program. These games show Oakland (3-0) at Tuscola (5-0), and Macomb Academy (4-0) at Hamilton (4-0) on Friday; Maine of Des Plaines (6-0) at Hinsdale (4-0) and Marquette of Alton (2-0) at Roxana (4-0) on Saturday.

Two of the untamed survivors facing upset minded opponents are Murphysboro and Peoria Spalding. Nursing a 21-game winning string, including five this season, Murphysboro's high riding Red Devils bump into a Johnston City team that has captured four in a row since stumbling in its first game.

Spalding's Irish, after laying off for a week, resume their drive for win No. 4 of the campaign. Their opponent is neighboring Peoria Manual, whose four game victory streak was stopped a week ago by Pekin.

The Moline Maroons, shaping up as one of the best teams in the state, risk their 5-0 mark in an encounter with Davenport, Ia.

Big Twelve fans are focusing attention on Champaign's invasion of Bloomington and Streator's match at Pekin. After faltering early in the season, all four outfits lately have come up with plenty of touchdown punch and are upstaged in league competition. Pekin has bagged four and the others three victories apiece in five starts.

By JOHN CAMPBELL

Coach Glen Smith's teams have won 27 Ivy games and lost two, besides playing one tie game in his short tenure in this conference. The losses came with Winchester, 20-13, in 1944, and with Roodhouse, 6-0, last season. The 7-7 tie game was with Roodhouse in 1946 at Pittsfield.

Coach Mason Campbell at Roodhouse has the distinction of having his Roodhouse high football teams cop 56, lose 4 and tie two in his 10 years in Ivy competition. The losses were to Carrollton and Pittsfield, two each, and the two ties were with the same two clubs.

Carrollton won over Coach Campbell's eleven 14-7 in 1936 and 6-0 in 1941. Pittsfield won 2-0 in 1939 and 20-0 this season.

Pawnee high is the eighth team to enter the Jacksonville holiday journey with Virginia, Virden, Kincaid, Pittsfield, Notre Dame of Quincy, Jacksonville and Route.

White Hall will be seeking its first win under its home lights Oct. 22, with Greenfield offering a strong threat to stop the bid. Losses to Carrollton, Jerseyville and Winchester followed the Maroons' installation of arcs last year. This season they have bowed to Carrollton on the home turf.

Doesn't Look Like End, But Jim Valek Among Illini's Best

Champaign, Ill.—At 5 feet 10 inches and 185 pounds, Jim Valek doesn't look like a Western Conference end. And at 20 years of age, he'd never give you the impression of being on verge of graduation from University of Illinois.

But the facts are that Valek, hard-scraping Slovak from Joliet, Ill., is one of the finest all-around ends on the current edition of Fighting Illini gridmen, and is in process of earning his fourth varsity "I" in football. Jim also is married and the father of two children.

Valek has worked hard this fall on his own pass receiving. He has improved greatly, as his performance in the Kansas State opener indicated. In that contest, Valek snagged two passes for 35 yards, one of them a 25-yard touchdown toss from Quarterback Bernie Krueger. Didn't snag 'Em In '47

Valek caught only three passes for 42 yards all last fall. His Kansas State showing would seem to indicate that he is developing as a receiver, and also that the Illini plan to use him more often in that phase of attack.

It was as a center for the strong Joliet Steadmen, coached by the 1938 Illini grid captain, Herm Walsler, that Valek first gained gridiron recognition. Valek backed up the Joliet line, and in addition to gaining a groundwork of clean, hard tackling he earned all-Big Eight conference and all-state prep recognition in 1944.

When Valek arrived at Illinois in 1945, the center position was well filled by George Bujan and Mac Wenskunas. And besides, Valek was only 5 feet 9 inches and 166 pounds in those days. So Coach Ray Eliot switched Jim to end, where he operated behind Bill Heles.

Rated Highly In 1946

In 1946 Sophomore Valek had to buck up against a crop of pre-war Illini ends who returned from service, but he still rated as one of the team's best defensive flankers. He grew to 5-10 and 180 pounds by that campaign, then last season attained 185 pounds. That's his top playing weight this fall.

Valek has concentrated on football at Illinois, but at Joliet he was a varsity letterman in baseball and wrestling as well as the grid sport. Valek will receive his physical education degree next spring. Then he hopes to enter the coaching field and show other athletes that size isn't everything in football.

5 Clubs In P. C. L. Without Managers For Next Season

Los Angeles, Oct. 14.—(P)—Wanted, by the Pacific Coast Baseball League: five managers.

Five of the league's eight clubs listed vacancies today following the signing by the New York Yankees of Casey Stengel of the Oakland club to pilot the Bombers and Jim (The Milkman) Turner as his coach.

Previously, San Diego and Jimmy (Ripper) Collins parted company, and ditto for Jimmy Dykes and Hollywood, and Joe Oringo and Sacramento.

Lefty O'Doul of San Francisco, Bill Kelly of Los Angeles and Jo Jo White, Seattle, are the three left from last season's campaign.

Kangaroos young are smaller in proportion to them than the young of any other animal; a 150 pound female gray kangaroo produces young about one inch long.

Illini Leaving Pierce At Home This Weekend

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 14.—(P)—Jack Pierce, injured Illinois halfback who sparked defensively against Army, will not make the trip to Minneapolis when the Illini leave here by plane tomorrow, Coach Ray Eliot said tonight.

Eliot named Paul Douglass of St. Louis, Mo., to replace Pierce when the Illini go up against Minnesota. He also indicated he will shift Chuck Brown, a tackle, to defensive guard.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—(P)—Coach Bernie Bierman said tonight he would start Jerry Ekberg at tackle Saturday when Minnesota meets Illinois.

Ekberg thus will become the first sophomore to draw a starting berth on the Gopher squad this season. He is a 220-pound Minneapolis high school product.

The Gophers continued their secret practice, carrying on under the lights in the fieldhouse tonight following an outdoor workout in the afternoon. The Illinois squad arrives by plane tomorrow and is slated to take over Northrup Field for a session in the late afternoon.

Evansville, Ill., Oct. 14.—(P)—Northwestern's football squad took its final short workout today before the all-important game with Michigan at Ann Arbor Saturday. The Wildcats will leave by train tomorrow.

Coach Bob Voigts said Jim Persigan will start at left guard against the Wolverines in place of Fatsio Day, and Tom Worthington will start at right halfback in place of the injured Ed Tunnicliffe.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 14.—(P)—Michigan's Wolverines, tapering off for their important clash with Northwestern here Saturday, omitted heavy contact work today as they went through a long and spirited practice session.

Dick Kemphorn, the bruising line-backing fullback who is one of the chief cogs in the Michigan defense, missed practice today because of a wrist infection. Coaches received assurances however that the infection, lanced yesterday, would not interfere with his vital role Saturday.

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 14.—(P)—Aerial work dominated the University of Iowa's last heavy football workout today before the homecoming game here Saturday with Purdue.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 14.—(P)—Fullback Bill Swistowicz was left behind tonight as the Notre Dame football squad left for Nebraska. He suffered back injuries in the Michigan State game last Saturday.

Left Guard Bill Fischer went along, but just for the ride.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 14.—(P)—Injuries will keep four members of the Purdue football squad at home when the team leaves tomorrow afternoon for Iowa City and Saturday's Big Nine game with the Hawkeyes.

The casualties are Ends Clyde Grimsenstien and Bob Whitmer, Halfback Neil Schmidt and Fullback Bob Agnew. Filling the right end spot was Coach Stu Holcomb's most puzzling problem today, with either Rex Sebastian or Kenneth McCaffry likely to start.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 14.—(P)—Coach Clyde Smith lamented that his Indiana University team was "downright desperate" to replace "mounders" today as it practiced pass defense for the Ohio State game here Saturday.

Injuries had left the Hoosiers with only two quarterbacks, Nick Sebek and Sophomore Lon Kasnovich, who hadn't played a minute this season.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—(P)—A 36-man squad of Ohio State University players will leave here tomorrow morning for Bloomington to meet Indiana in the Buckeyes' first road game of the season.

Coach Wesley Fesler is leaving behind Jack Wilson of Xenia, who started the first three games at right tackle, and Bob Demmel of Fremont, third string right half. Pete Perini of New Village, N. J., regular quarterback, will go along but Fesler said he wouldn't use him unless absolutely necessary because of past injuries.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 14.—(P)—Coach Harry Stuhldreher was 47 years old today and his University of Wisconsin football team promised him his present next Saturday afternoon.

The gift—a victory over Yale in their game here. Meanwhile, the Badgers drilled on defense against Yale passes and ground plays.

Kickoff: 8 p.m.

The Illinois College Blueboys, their backfield badly crippled with numerous injuries, attempt to chalk up their fourth victory in as many tries tonight when the tackle the tough, unbeaten Eureka college Red Devils at Jacksonville high school field at 8 p.m.

Coach Al Miller of the hilltoppers reported Thursday afternoon that the four backs which he will start are the only ones in shape for the fray. And, Joe Hill, the right half, has been having shoulder trouble again.

Eureka, on the other hand, is two deep in every backfield spot. The Red Devils' biggest trouble this season seems to come from the line.

Mathews, Billings Hurt

Latest additions to the I.C. injury roster are Bill Mathews, regular guard whose nose was broken in two places Wednesday, and Dave Billings, utility back, who was downed with a knee injury. These new mishaps, coupled with previous hurts suffered by Ed Ryan, Bob Scheller and Barney Vilk, leave the situation strained, to say the least.

Dick Johnson, another starter, and Rich Frisky, a second-string end, are no longer on the squad.

There'll be some changes in the Blueboy line, according to Coach Joe Brooks. George Florence, Jacksonville candidate who has impressed on defense, will get his test on offense in place of Mathews. Ray Paxton will probably go at center again. The rest of the forward wall is intact.

Right halfback Bob McCarthy, who beat Scott Field with his conversion, will be back in the Eureka lineup after injuring a leg muscle in the Iowa Wesleyan combat last week. More break-away runners are available in Jack Hoffman and Bob Jensen. And all-conference fullback Vern Strubhar, and his underdog, Warren Siebert, will be ready. Left halfbacks Luke Spinder and Kenny Creek, both of East Peoria, have also been impressive in the two Eureka tests this year. Millard, a good chucker, will go at quarter.

One Of Toughest Teams

Coach Paul LaVinn's Red Devils were originally scheduled as a breather to follow the North Central loop tilt, but they now appear to be one of the toughest outfits on the Blueboy schedule. The team is rated on a par with strong Illinois Wesleyan university by observers in that sector.

The visitors will carry an undefeated record into the fray, having edged Scott Field 7-6 and beaten Iowa Wesleyan 14-6. Iowa Wesleyan is highly-regarded in Cornhusker athletic circles.

Tonight's fray, the last after-dark tilt on the schedule for Jacksonville fans this season, will not count in the CCI standings Eureka plays in the Pioneer loop.

The hosts are planning to throw plenty of aerials at the invading contingent, as Eureka showed a glaring weakness in pass defense against Wesleyan last Saturday. The Blueboy passes clicking against Principia two weeks ago, failed to

As to the outfield, Veeck said "we're all set there with two great youngsters, 'Dale' Mitchell in left and 'Larry' Doby in center, but we probably could use a little help in right. Maybe Hank Edwards will take care of that for us."

Edwards dislocated his right shoulder in a game with the Boston Red Sox Aug. 1 when he leaped against the outfield fence and made a spectacular catch of a drive by Stan Spence. He was out of action the rest of the season.

The Indians' president was non-committal on the subject of whether Boudreau would receive a new managerial contract. The old two-year document runs through next season.

"That's one of the items we will take up when we get to it," Bill said.

Four Teams Left In Morgan County Softball Tourney

Chapin—Softball squads from Litterberry, Alexander, Chapin and Waverly grade schools will slug it out today for the Morgan county championship trophy. The tilts will be played on the Chapin grade school diamond.

The four outfits survived the opening round of play held Thursday on the grade and high school fields. Eight of the 12 team field were eliminated yesterday.

Results of the day were: Lynnville 7; Murrysville 6. Litterberry 11; Franklin 7. Waverly 20; Meredosa 16. Arenzville 18; Woodson 4. Litterberry 10; Lynnville 5. Alexander 18; South Jacksonville 8.

Chapin 22; Concord 4. Waverly 12; Arenzville 4. Litterberry will meet Alexander at 10 a.m. Friday. Chapin will contest Waverly in the second morning game, with the winners battling for top honors in the afternoon.

work at North Central last week.

Tonight's game will mark the return to each lineup of one player who has been benched for some time. Jacksonville fans will get their first glimpse of Bob Grove, Canton quarterback, who was injured in the Scott Field opener. Tim Tracy, 200-pound Eureka tackle mainstay, will reappear after being injured against the same team a week later.

The fray is expected to draw a banner crowd to the northside field, as perfect weather has been forecast. Combining to create additional interest are the facts that both clubs are undefeated, that this will be the final night game of the year and that "Brick" Young, popular Bloomington sports-writer and official, will be working here for the first time since before the war.

Cleveland Will Largely Stand Pat On Team: Veeck

Cleveland, Oct. 14.—(P)—Ty Cleveland Indians won't need much overhauling for defense of their world championship, President Bill Veeck said today.

"Of course, that doesn't mean we'll repeat but we'll be up there with the best of them," Bill hastened to add.

Veeck conceded that "we can't stand Pat completely. No team should adopt that attitude. But I don't think many changes will be necessary."

"We have a pitching staff that is good for five years," Veeck said. "Our outfield is one of the best and there isn't a better catcher in the league than Jim Hegan."

Another Good Year In Lou

Robinson at first, our infield is past the 30 mark, but I'm looking for another good year from "Lou" Boudreau, "Ken" Keltner and "Joe" Gordon. Some people will tell you those three are slowing up but they played some great baseball this year. Some younger fellows might cover more ground but you can't beat instinct and experience.

"Our pitching looks awfully good to me," Bill remarked. "Gene Bearden and Bob Lemon both won 20 games and this was the first full season on the mound for both of them."

"Bob Feller will come back. In fact, he did come back this year in spite of the fact he lost two series games. A lot of people overlook the fact that he helped us tremendously in the stretch drive. Remember, he won seven straight before Hal Newhouser beat us and forced us into that playoff with the Red Sox. Nobody could have beaten Newhouser that day."

Expects Help From Gromek

Veeck also expects a lot of pitching help next year from Steve Gromek. The 27-year-old right-hander won 19 games for the Indians in 1945, then had two dismal seasons. This year he seemed to find himself as a "spot" pitcher, and wound up with nine victories and three losses.

As to the outfield, Veeck said "we're all set there with two great youngsters, 'Dale' Mitchell in left and 'Larry' Doby in center, but we probably could use a little help in right. Maybe Hank Edwards will take care of that for us."

Edwards dislocated his right shoulder in a game with the Boston Red Sox Aug. 1 when he leaped against the outfield fence and made a spectacular catch of a drive by Stan Spence. He was out of action the rest of the season.

The Indians' president was non-committal on the subject of whether Boudreau would receive a new managerial contract. The old two-year document runs through next season.

"That's one of the items we will take up when we get to it," Bill said.

The Loves of Carmen

By SOPHIE KERR
Copyright, 1948.
NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Don Jose, young officer, comes to Seville from the countryside of Navarre. He becomes enamored of the bewitching gypsy, Carmen. A passionate love affair is interrupted by Jose's superior officer, who feels he has a claim on Carmen. Angry and jealous, the older man draws his sword on Jose. The fight is unequal but Carmen, seeing her opportunity, trips the colonel and he falls, spitted, on Jose's sword.
Hiding out in the mountains with Carmen, Jose can't seem to grasp the fact that he's a deserter and a murderer. The clatter of horses' hoofs heralds the approach of others. Carmen listens warily.

PABLO and Remondado, bundled in serapes against the mountain cold, were first to come into the circle of the fire. They stopped short as they saw Carmen and Don Jose.

Don Jose's arm dropped from across Carmen's shoulders and she moved slightly, to stand in front of him in an almost protective gesture. Her voice was sharp.

"This is Jose, a strong, healthy addition to our company. You will find him very valuable. He was a soldier."

She turned to Jose and said,
"This one is Pablo, who is good in a fight but don't ever turn your back on him. And this one is Remondado. He's stupid but he's not a bad fellow."

She crossed to the stewpot, keeping up a steady flow of chatter. Don Jose, conscious of the steady, suspicious regard of the two men followed her. Carmen started to dish the stew into bowls.

"He killed the colonel in a sword fight. Ran him through as neatly as a pig on a spit. He's a deserter and a murderer."

As she said this she looked up and let her eyes meet those of the two gypsies men defiantly. "So I said he could join us."

There was utter silence. No one moved or spoke. Then Rem-ondado, the good-natured one, grinned and the awkwardness was broken. Carmen relaxed and leaned over the stewpot again.

Remondado went to the fire and knocking the hearth from the spit with a stick, picked it up, juggling it from one hand to the other to keep from burning himself.

PABLO, the surly one, still had not moved and Carmen kept one eye warily on him as she ladled some stew out of the pot.
After a long moment he said,
"What will Garcia say?"

Carmen straightened and glared at him. "We need new men." She shrugged. "Garcia is a very practical man."

Jose turned to Carmen. "Who's Garcia?" he said.

"Garcia? He's our leader." Remondado answered with an odd note of warning in his voice.
Pablo, his mouth full of food, volunteered. "He's been in jail."

"He killed a border policeman," Remondado added.
Carmen, pouring stew into a bowl, said proudly, "That's eight notches in his belt."

Don Jose looked appalled when he said, "Eight?"

Remondado answered with a bowl of stew and looked at him levelly.
"One or eight—what's the difference in principle?"

Don Jose took the bowl and turned away, silenced. Remondado said, "Dancare is in Seville now, fixing Garcia's release."

"With a nice, fat bribe," said Pablo, tearing at the meat with his teeth.

Don Jose turned back, caught by this. "Dancare—is he a bandit?"
Carmen crossed to him with her own bowl of stew. "It isn't a bad life. We travel—there's plenty of excitement. And when we're lucky, there's money." She perched herself on a rock. "A little smuggling —an occasional stage coach—
a mule train carrying merchandise.
Sit down, Joseito. Here by me where you belong."

SHE looked off at Remondado, daring him to comment on this.
Silently Remondado went to the stewpot as Don Jose sat unconfortably beside Carmen.

Pablo, chewing on a bone, said,
"Carmen, you might like to know that we cleaned out that storehouse without a cracked skull between us."

Remondado chuckled. "It was full of tobacco and cotton. Just like you said. The thieves' market in Cordova will be glad to see us."

Don Jose looked from one to the other, disturbed by the conversation, not understanding Carmen's part in it. Pablo obligingly tried to enlighten him. "We couldn't have done it without Carmen. She charmed the old watchman away from his post and trussed him up like a turkey ready for the oven."

Carmen kept her eyes on the bowl of stew as if intent on the business of eating.

In a low voice, trying not to be heard by the others, Jose said,
"You cheated and tied up an old man so they could commit a robbery?"

Carmen continued to eat greedily and, still not looking at him, shrugged and said, "Tobacco's very valuable."

His face set, his tone became very definite. "After we're married there'll be no more of that."

She looked at him sideways quickly and stopped eating. "Married?"

Jose's eyes were hard and uncompromising. "I won't have my wife mixed up in such things."

She flicked a quick glance off toward the other men to see if they had heard.

He went on sternly. "Do you understand?"

After a moment, softly, with her eyes on the bowl in her lap, she answered. "It will be as you say, Joseito—always."

Then her head lifted at the sound of horses and shouts.
Remondado and Pablo ran off into the darkness.

Carmen rose slowly and put her bowl down on the rock.

Salzburg, Austria Subject Of Talk To Kiwanis Club

An illustrated talk on Salzburg, Austria, was the highlight of the Thursday noon meeting of the Kiwanis club. Contained in the talk given by Dr. Ray Holcombe of the faculty of MacMurray college, was a vivid description of the ancient and historic city.

Much of Dr. Holcombe's talk was devoted to presenting a clear picture of the Austrian citizen's attitude towards present-day conditions in Europe.

According to Dr. Holcombe, the performance of the United States air forces has been a source of inspiration to all Germans and Austrians.

In addition, the assistance rendered through CARE, as well as the activities of the American Red Cross, have served as marvelous propaganda instruments for America.

The people there, declared Dr. Holcombe, recognize and appreciate American aid, as strongly as they feel Russian oppression.

It was announced by A. Wadsworth Applebee that a few choice seats are still available for the presentation of "John Loves Mary," which will be given Oct. 18 by a New York cast, under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis club.

One new member, Albert Teaters, was introduced.

12 ATTEND CHURCH CLASS WIEBER ROAST

Concord—The intermediate class of the Methodist church held a wieners roast Tuesday at the R. E. Nickel farm northwest of Concord. After a social hour, devotional services were conducted. In addition to the leaders, Mrs. Lawrence Weghoff and Mrs. Robert Pitsch, there were seven members and three guests present.

Simple Line Important Detail in Rothmoor Collection

The coats and suits shown by the Emporium have a new elegance all their own. They are designed and made for women who like really good fashions that endure.

The colors are particularly exciting. They are deeper, richer. Greys range from the misty silver to charcoal. Reds are glowing, rather than glaring. The deep-in-the-forest-at-night greens and warm browns from peccan to black oak, are reminiscent of fine oil paintings.

All Rothmoor and Leeds Ltd., fabrics are 100% virgin wool. There are new weaves, new finishes. The gabardine, made exclusively for Rothmoor for their zip-in coats, is of men's wear quality that retains its press and shape under all manner of hard wear.

The zip-in coats are the queens for all season wear. Unlike the usual zip-in coats, Rothmoor and Leeds Ltd., have designed these for warmth without weight and bulk.

Simple lines and dressmaker details predominate in the Rothmoor coats. Collars are close fitting, flat-coring. Shoulders are softly rounded. Pockets are deep and full. Sleeves may be full and flowing, controlled by tight fitting cuffs, or loose and beautifully draped. Furs are lavish, opulent.

Rothmoor and Eisenberg suits are slim-skirted again, with well-placed slits for ease in walking. They serve as good backdrops for the dressmaker details of the jackets. There are many little touches that make a Rothmoor style individual. Buttons are used for design. Collars are softer, more flattering. Pockets have extra flaps for interest.

The feel of the fabrics, the way they hang, the finishing details—are the distinguishing marks of all Emporium coats.—Adv.

By Mary Ellen Broge

One of the newest additions to Jacksonville's home industries is the Riemann Wreath company located at 2354 W. Douglas avenue. Twenty-four year old Carl Riemann, Jr. is the originator-owner of the company that manufactures a complete line of Christmas and funeral wreaths, sprays, pillows, and crosses.

It was "just about a year ago" that Riemann set up shop—one large cluttered workroom with a tiny rainbow-hued sprayroom in back. There was nothing exciting about that shop, but it was a beginning. And if there's anything to the old saying, half the job was done.

Before Riemann could put his two-man assembly line (since increased to five men) to work, it was necessary to build some work tables to suit his specific needs. There's a theory that goes something like this: If I can work 18 hours a day for somebody else, I can do it for myself. So this native of Jacksonville built his own tables, blended his paint, designed his product, and acted as company sales manager.

One of the most important tasks facing the new employer was the training of his workers. Because of several unfortunate experiences, he spent a great deal of time and effort on this phase of the work. Here again, haste only makes waste. As for learning to do the work right, there's a lot to learn. Here's a quickie description of the way wreaths are made.

The Moss-filled frames are placed on circular designs which are painted on the tables. Sprays of processed material are arranged on the frame and held in place by philly fern pins. Incidentally, these pins are made by the same company that turns out women's hair pins. While arranging the material, the workers break off any pieces that detract from the roundness of the wreath. Sprays are then arranged counter-clockwise on the frame, always making sure that nothing spoils the roundness of the circle. At this point any other decorations are added and the wreath is sprayed with paint.

The company turns out 12 different types of wreaths from 16 to 30 inches in diameter in eight different colors—pink, blue, yellow, lavender, orchid, green, Christmas green and red. If you readers have any questions about how the work is done or if you'd like to see the process first-hand, 2354 W. Douglas is the place to visit. All "construction work watchers" ought to find it especially interesting.

Riemann has confidence in well-made artificial wreaths "because they're lasting." The only thing that ever makes a wreath look old is the fact that the sun bleaches out its intense color. (That's one reason why your house isn't painted that delectable shade of pink.)

Because our newest manufacturer believes in keeping the profits at home, he purchases all materials that he possibly can from local merchants. This is not entirely feasible, mainly because many of his materials are unheard of in this vicinity. For instance, the some of his everyday products include: statice, northern and southern pine cones, pepperglass, sphagnum, ruscus, button weed, sour dock, silk screen process paint, wreath frames, and teal. Ruscus comes from Italy!

Riemann has two main outlets for his products. One is the florists' shops. This market has worked out so well that florists' shops in Springfield, Decatur, Danville, Freeport, and many other towns in and out of Illinois carry Riemann's wreaths. Florists of seven states stock wreaths made in Jacksonville.

His wreath has also been adopted by American Legion posts in seven states, including the local post in Jacksonville. Riemann would like to have his wreath used by the American Legion for all of memorial services. He is pictured above with this specially designed wreath. It is made on a 14 inch box style frame and the wreath proper is made of ruscus. The emblem inserted in the middle was designed by Riemann and is made of masonite. After the wreath is put together, the entire device is sprayed with American blue paint. After it has dried thoroughly the emblem is stenciled in and the wreath is dusted with gold. The size of the finished product is 22 inches in diameter.

Membership Plan Suggested For Recreation Club

Members of the Jacksonville Recreation club will see all games at Nichols Park diamond free of charge next season, according to plans formulated at a meeting at the Jay-Cee restaurant Thursday night. But membership cards will sell at $10 per copy instead of the former $1 fee.

Harry Dowland, club treasurer, suggested the move so that money would be available to meet expenses early in the season and also so that funds could be budgeted for the various activities, including junior and senior softball and improvement of recreation facilities.

Russell Kelley of the grounds committee reported that plans are underway to lay a new, four-foot water main into the park. This will allow enough water for maintenance of the diamond. The main will probably be laid before winter. Kelley also reported that the new grass is getting a fine start.

Several members were authorized to purchase awards for winners of the various softball leagues last season.

"Something for everybody," is the slogan of the management of the Twin Basket market during the grand opening, which will continue through Monday evening, Oct. 18. The Twin Basket grocery will give two baskets of baby food to each set of twins born after the store is opened.

Located on the south edge of city on U.S. 67, the new establishment has parking space for up to 100 cars.
